

SOME TOP NOTCH MOVIE PLAYS BOOKED FOR TODAY

In connection with the Mary Pickford Life Career stories The Day Book will run a list of high class moving picture houses which show Mary Pickford pictures. The main attraction of these theaters will be named from day to day during this Pickford series.

ABGORE, 1040 Argyle st. — "Du Barry."

ASHLAND, Ashland and Madison — "The Blessed Miracle."

BELL, 2407 W. Madison st. — "The Human Menace." (No children.)

BLOU, 304 S. Halsted st. — "To Redeen a Note."

BIOGRAPH, 3433 Lincoln av. — "The Great Silence."

CENTURY THEATER, 1421 W. Madison st. — "A Theft in the Dark."

CLARK, Clark st. and Wilson av. — Mary Pickford in "Cinderella."

CRYSTAL THEATER, 2701 W. North av. — "From Headquarters."

FEDERAL, 218 W. 61st st. — "The Only Way Out."

GRAND, 1808 W. 47th. — "Everygirl."

GLEN, 2852 Armitage av. — "A Child of the Prairie."

LOWY'S, 140 Milwaukee av. — Chas. Chaplin, "In the Park."

PARK, N. Clark st. and Morse av. — "Justified."

PLAISANCE, 466 N. Parkside, Austin — "The Morals of Marcus."

SAVOY, 4346 Madison st. — Charles Chaplin.

SHAKESPEARE, 436 st. and Ellis av. — "Time Look 776."

STANDARD, 750 N. Clark st. — "The Green Idol."

STAR THEATER, 1453 Milwaukee av. — "The Duchess."

STATES, 3509 S. State st. — "The Rose of the Rancho."

STEVENS, 2952 Broadway — "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch."

WHITE ROSE, 1420 S. Crawford av. — "The Measure of a Man."

Several theaters are omitted from this column as their list of feature attractions has not yet been received.

AN HEROINE

By Jim Manes

She stood in the window,
The flames dashed about,
When some one yelled loudly:

"Let me help you out."
"Oh, no," she replied,
"I am safe now I gather,
For I've found some soap,
"I'll come down on the ladder."

P. S.—It's a relief to get those things off your mind.

BITS OF NEWS

Fred Newman, Brookfield2 florist, ate paris green, ordered children from home, then compelled wife to sit by bed 9 hours and watch him die.

Remaining indictments against Jos. Fish, fire insurance adjuster, twice acquitted of arson, dropped.

Man saved from suffocation, 20 women and children driven to street by fire, 606 N. Clark.

Burrell Billig, latest arrested as Aurora murder suspect, released.

Members board of education, teachers' federation and civic clubs met and approved child labor bill at Springfield.

Boar dof Trade operations under assumed name cause Walter Sperling, cashier Bank of Adair (to lose stockholders' $150,000 and bank to fail, says conspiracy charge filed in superior court against Sperling and brokers.

CHICAGO GRAIN. — Wheat, corn, oats and provisions down. May wheat closed at $1.61 1/4.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — Market strong and active.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and Thursday; not much change in temperature; lower tonight near the freezing point; gentle variable winds mostly easterly. Temperature Tuesday: Highest 34, lowest, 28.